

TARGA

ROOKIE RALLYE ELIGIBILITY

Intention

To provide new competitors to TARGA and Tarmac Rallying an opportunity to compete against other like-minded new competitors.

Ineligible to Compete

Any previous TARGA event as a FULL competition competitor, regardless of whether they were the driver, co-driver and/or navigator or which year/s they competed in. Full competition means any unrestricted speed competition held at TARGA Tasmania, TARGA High Country or TARGA Great Barrier Reef regardless of course length.

Eligible to Compete

- (a) Any previous TARGA speed-limited competitor or TARGA Tour Participant. Speed-Limited means the GT Sports, Thoroughbred & TSD Trophy Competitions.
- (b) Any previous Targa competitor who has only competed in other Targa events, regardless of the competition competed in. Other Targa events means, TARGA North West, TARGA Hellyer Gorge, TARGA Wrest Point, TARGA Adelaide, Classic TARGA Adelaide.
- (c) Any competitor who holds a current appropriate Motorsport Australia National Rally Licence.

Vehicle Eligibility

Vehicles must meet the same technical regulations criteria as applied to the normal relevant full competition. i.e. Classic must meet the Classic GT rules as a minimum, Early Modern must meet the Early Modern 2 or Early Modern 4 rules and GT must meet either the GTP or GTO rules. No exemptions will be given.

Competition Status

The normal competition status rules apply to the Rookie Rallye, which is a minimum of ten cars. If there less than ten cars, TARGA reserve the right to amend the competition to a category.

Future Eligibility

- (a) Once a competitor has left the Ceremonial Start of any of the events, they will be listed as a rookie rallye competitor and will be ineligible to compete in any future rookie rallye competitions.
- (b) Regardless if the competitor competes as a driver, co-driver or navigator, a Rookie Rallye competitor can only compete in one Rookie Rallye Competition, not matter the event chosen to compete in.
- (c) Regardless of team or vehicle changes, a Rookie Rallye competitor can only compete in one Rookie Rallye Competition at any particular event.
