

TARGA TASMANIA

The Ultimate Tarmac Rally

Targa Tasmania 2025 | Guide to the Event

WWW.TARGA.COM.AU

About the Event

Targa Tasmania is one of the world’s last iconic motoring events. Held each November over six days on the beautiful and remote island of Tasmania, the event offers everything from full blown motorsport rally competition in the tradition of Targa Florio and the Mille Miglia through to a spirited driving holiday in Targa Tours designed for those who want to simply enjoy their vehicles on some of the best roads you could ever imagine.

With over 30 sections of road closed to the public and more than 2,000 kilometres of sealed roads and amazing landscapes to enjoy, Targa Tasmania is the Ultimate Tarmac Rally.

Arrive Early and Explore Southern Tasmania

Below is a list of suggestions for things to see and do if you choose to extend your trip to Tasmania.

Hobart + Southern Tasmania

Hobart is a beautiful city with a mix of history, culture, and stunning natural landscapes. Here are some top tourist attractions and activities to explore:

MONA (Museum of Old and New Art)
A world-famous, quirky, and provocative museum that pushes the boundaries of contemporary and modern art. The unique experience begins with a ferry ride from Hobart’s waterfront, offering a scenic approach to the museum’s striking architecture, built into the cliffs along the Derwent River.

Salamanca Market
Held every Saturday in Salamanca Place, this vibrant open-air market features over 300 stalls selling local crafts, fresh produce, artisan foods, handmade jewelry, and unique souvenirs. The market is set against the backdrop of beautifully preserved 19th-century sandstone warehouses, now home to galleries, cafés, and boutique shops.

Mount Wellington (Kunanyi)
Towering 1,271 meters above Hobart, this mountain offers breathtaking panoramic views of the city, the Derwent River, and even as far as Bruny Island on a clear day.

Royal Tasmanian Botanical Gardens
Established in 1818, these stunning gardens are among the oldest in the Southern Hemisphere. They feature a diverse collection of native and exotic plants, Japanese and French gardens, and a rare subantarctic plant house, the only one of its kind in the world.

Cascade Brewery
Australia’s oldest operating brewery, founded in 1824, set against the dramatic backdrop of Mount Wellington. The heritage-listed Gothic-style building and its beautiful gardens create a picturesque setting for a brewery tour and beer tastings.

Bruny Island
A short 20-minute ferry ride from Kettering, Bruny Island is known for its dramatic cliffs, white sandy beaches, and rich wildlife, including seals, penguins, and rare white wallabies. Food lovers will enjoy sampling artisan cheese, fresh oysters, local honey, whiskey, and handcrafted chocolates. The Bruny Island Neck Lookout offers stunning 360-degree views of the island’s isthmus, a highlight for photographers and nature lovers.

Port Arthur Historic Site
A UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, Port Arthur is one of Australia’s most significant convict-era settlements. Set on a scenic harbor, it features well-preserved ruins, restored buildings, and an interactive visitor center that brings its fascinating history to life. Visitors can join guided tours, explore at their own pace, or take a chilling after-dark ghost tour to hear tales of its eerie past. A harbor cruise also takes visitors past the Isle of the Dead, a convict burial ground, adding to the experience

Stay Longer and Explore Northern Tasmania

Launceston + North East Tasmania

Launceston is a charming city with a mix of stunning natural landscapes, history, and great food. Here's a list of top things to do when visiting Launceston & North Eastern Tasmania

Cataract Gorge Reserve

Just minutes from the city center, this stunning natural reserve features scenic walking trails, a chairlift ride, a swimming pool, and resident peacocks.

Tamar Valley Wine Region

One of Tasmania's premier wine regions, offering cool-climate wines, rolling vineyards, and cellar door tastings. Top spots like Josef Chromy and Jansz provide exceptional Pinot Noir and sparkling wines, along with gourmet food pairings.

Bridestowe Lavender Estate

A picturesque farm famous for its endless purple lavender fields which will be starting to bloom in November. Enjoy lavender-inspired treats like lavender ice cream, take a guided tour, and shop for unique local products.

Queen Victoria Museum & Art Gallery (QVMAG)

Tasmania's largest regional museum, featuring fascinating exhibits on colonial history, natural science, and Ab-original heritage. It also houses a planetarium and interactive displays for all ages.

Woolmers Estate

A UNESCO-listed historic homestead and convict-era farm, offering a deep dive into Tasmania's colonial past. Walk through beautifully preserved buildings, heritage gardens, and see one of Australia's finest collections of antique rose gardens.

Harvest Launceston Farmers' Market (Saturdays)

A vibrant weekly market where you can experience the best of Tasmanian produce. Enjoy fresh artisan bread, local cheeses, organic fruits and vegetables, gourmet meats, honey, and handcrafted goods, all while soaking in the lively atmosphere.

James Boag Brewery Tour

Step inside Launceston's famous brewery, founded in 1881, and learn about the beer-making process while sampling classic Tasmanian brews. The historic setting and expert-led tastings make this a must-do for beer enthusiasts.
